FCC NEWS...

VISION FOR 2010 & BEYOND

Surrendered and Sold Out for Jesus would certainly describe the many men and women of the New Testament who followed Jesus.

It would also describe the many Christians during the early church who were persecuted by the Romans. If you examine history during times such as the reformation you would see that those who risked their lives for the Gospel could be described this way as well.

In some countries today - just to be caught worshipping Jesus means prison or torture or death. I'd certainly call that surrendered and sold out.

But in the good old USA - could we call most Christians surrendered totally to Jesus? Sold out to doing His will no matter what? Hmm. What went wrong?

These days - We are in perhaps the greatest - and the last opportunity to expand the Gospel to "all the world" (Matt. 28:19-20). But are we ready?

I really think that's why God wants us to overcome the number one obstacle we face. Our addiction to... us.

Today's message is simply a brief warm-up. The series begins next Sunday. We may end up with only 12 people left after this. But look what Jesus did with just a few.

HELP FOR HAITI

We still have not heard from Missionary Martha Taylor and I'm a bit concerned. Please left her up in prayer.

To donate through FCC - just mark "Haiti" on the gift and we will distribute the funds to Christian ministries already on the field.
